

Within Excellence Cluster 264 "Topoi - The Formation and Transformation of Space and Knowledge in Ancient Civilizations", which has been set up in the framework of the Excellence Initiative at the Freie Universität Berlin and the Humboldt-Universität Berlin,

10 Stipends for Junior Fellows

Reference number: JunFell2009

are being offered. The support can last from 6 months up to 12 months (the period is to be specified in the application) and is to begin between January 1st and March 31st, 2009. The Fellows' research plans should be related to the Excellence Cluster's research questions. Information on Topoi and its research groups can be found at www.topoi.org.

The prerequisite for applying is a doctoral thesis far above average in one of the disciplines participating in the Excellence Cluster.

The stipend provides 2,300 Euros a month.

Reference number: JunFell2009

Closing Date: November 30th, 2008

Along with the customary application documents (cv, grade transcripts, two letters of recommendation), an outline of the intended research is expected that is related to Topoi's fields of research.

Please send your application only electronically via e-mail to:
